

FINAL RESULTS EDITION

PRICE ONE CENT.

The

"Circulation Books Open to All."

World

"Circulation Books Open to All."

FINAL RESULTS EDITION

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1906.

"POLICY KING" LEFT FROM $8,000,000 TO $10,000,000 TO HIS WIFE AND FAMILY

While Al Adams's Will Shows Only $600,000 in Real Estate and Personal Property He Held Blocks of Various Stock.

INTERESTED IN BREWERY AND MEXICAN MINES.

C. F. Tietjen, One of the Executors, Declines to Serve and Explains Why—The Other Two Are Charles F. Bauerdorf and George Karsch, Old Associates.

The last will and testament of Albert J. Adams, the so-called "Policy King," which was offered for probate to-day, does not reveal upon its face the vast estate of the dead man, now conservatively estimated at from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Adams did not give one cent of his fortune to charity; with the exception of two small annuities and one bequest of property in Rhode Island, the will bequeaths one-third of the property to his wife and the remainder to his six children.

The executors of the will named in the document are Charles F. Bauerdorf, lawyer, of No. 111 Broadway; George Karsch, of the Karsch Brewing Company, and Christian F. Tietjen, President of the West Side Bank. Mr. Tietjen will not serve.

Only $600,000 Appears.

The estate is put in by the two remaining executors as real estate exceeding $100,000 and personal property over $100,000.

"How about the reports that Mr. Adams had suffered recent heavy business reverses?" was asked of Mr. Bauerdorf.

"Ridiculous to a large extent," replied the lawyer.

"Did not Mr. Adams have an estate of at least $10,000,000?"

"It might be within $10,000,000 or $10,000,000," said Mr. Bauerdorf, "but I do not care to go behind the figures we have named. $100,000 realty and $100,000 personal property. I do not believe in the free use of large figures, and there will be none used in connection with Mr. Adams's will."

"Why does Mr. Tietjen renounce as executor?"

"That is his personal affair. There will be no substitution as I infer the beneficiaries have the utmost confidence in the ability of the other two executors to administer the estate."

Some of the Stock He Owned.

Mr. Bauerdorf said the estate included a three-quarter interest in the Karsch Brewing Company, which owns upwards of one hundred choice liquor store corners in Manhattan, valued at least at $1,000,000. Mr. Adams also was the controlling owner of the Guanajuato Amalgamated Gold Mining Company, of Mexico, incorporated at $2,000,000, and which represented a personal investment by him of $1,000,000, and which would bring operations on Nov. 1. Besides, Mr. Adams personally owned much realty in Manhattan and a great quantity of valuable stocks and bonds.

President Tietjen Explains.

President Tietjen, of the West Side Bank, when asked why he had renounced as an executor of the Adams estate, said: "There are two executors left, and they are quite enough. I did not want to take any money out of the estate for nothing. Besides, Mr. Bauerdorf and Mr. Karsch were closer to Mr. Adams than I. Mr. Adams was connected with the West Side Bank in a business way before I came here."

Mr. Tietjen said that the estimate of

(Continued on Second Page.)

SEVEN DAYS OF WORLD WANT GROWTH

Here is a case of turning the tables—the tables of advertising in New York. The two sets of figures show THE WORLD'S supremacy in advertising and the way the wants grow. The record is last week's:

THE WORLD				THE HERALD
DAY	This Year	Last Year	Gain	DAY	This Year	Last Year	Gain
Sunday . . .	8,670	7,330	1,340	Sunday . . .	11,034	10,783	251
Monday . . .	4,403	3,456	947	Monday . . .	2,081	1,938	143
Tuesday . . .	5,797	4,741	1,056	Tuesday . . .	3,504	3,380	124
Wednesday . . .	5,271	4,223	948	Wednesday . . .	3,506	3,350	156
Thursday . . .	4,368	3,920	448	Thursday . . .	3,266	3,153	113
Friday . . .	3,845	3,199	646	Friday . . .	2,547	2,446	101
Saturday . . .	3,034	2,319	715	Saturday . . .	1,926	1,760	166
Total for week	35,938	29,333	6,605	Total for week	27,864	26,810	1,054

In columns THE WORLD printed 986 The Herald 913%. THE WORLD gained 183 columns The Herald 102%.

The World Is the First New York Newspaper.

DEATH FOR TWO RATHER THAN GO BACK TO EUROPE

Ordered Deported, Mrs. Magnit Stabs Daughter—Planned Suicide.

With the gates of the Land of Promise closed against her, Mrs. Mary Magnit, a pretty young Austrian woman, stabbed her eight-year-old daughter, Mary, at Ellis Island, perhaps fatally, and it is supposed intended to kill herself.

Mrs. Magnit and her daughter came on the Caronia last Tuesday. They traveled in the second cabin. When Ellis Island officials boarded the ship, they learned Mrs. Magnit was an invalid and despite her protests she was taken to Ellis Island to await investigation.

In due time the board decided that Mrs. Magnit was too indolent to be admitted and she was ordered deported on the Caronia to-morrow. When the decision was communicated to Mrs. Magnit on Saturday she became violent. The doctors were unable to quiet her and she was placed in a room under guard.

The frantic mother cried continuously for her child, and to pacify her the little girl was finally admitted to the room. Mrs. Magnit immediately became quiet. An hour later the child's cry aroused the building, and it was found the mother's quietness was only the cunning of a lunatic.

When the attendants reached the room they found the mother standing over the child, plunging a knife in the child's neck.

When the mother was taken away, the child's misery and her own, Mrs. Magnit was placed in a straight jacket. The child is in a precarious condition.

AMERICAN GIRL DRAGGED FROM TRAIN IN RUSSIA

Not Allowed to Leave Country Because of Official Persecution.

On the French liner La Bretagne, which arrived to-day was Koraia Aron, a married Armenian woman, at the Park Avenue Hotel, who reported a Russian outrage on a young American woman. The young woman is Miss Margaret C. Weisner, of Chicago, and according to Aron she was dragged off a train and not allowed to leave Russia owing to official persecution.

Aron and his wife spent two months traveling in Russia, Russia and Australia, and came back to New York by the ship.

Miss Weisner, who was an actress, way to London. In that city she had been a class in languages, teaching English to Germans, Russians and Austrians. She was not allowed to leave Russia.

Some of the Russian pupils that they had their parents invite the teacher to spend the summer with them in Central Russia, the city of Khabarovsk.

The young American woman was on her way back to open her school when the train stopped at Valchinsk, near the Russian border, for the last examination of passports. The official who examined Miss Weisner's passport claimed that it was not properly issued and ordered her taken from the train.

Two Russian soldiers with drawn sabers dragged the young woman, protesting, from the car.

Miss Weisner and several other Americans on the train went to the woman's assistance and protested against the treatment. The Russian officials refused to let her go, claiming that she was a spy.

Miss Weisner was told she would have to go back to Ellis Island. As she had only money enough for her fare to Berlin, having sent all her money to her mother, she was in a most unpleasant situation. The Americans promised to bring her case to the attention of the government, but Aron said he would not do so.

Mr. Tietjen said that the estimate of

(Continued on Second Page.)

TREASURE BOX OF LOST SHIP GONE; CREW SUSPECTED

Steamer Sirio, on Which 150 Persons Perished, Wrecked for Plunder?

PARIS, Oct. 8.—The Echo De Paris to-day published a despatch from Cartagena, Spain, announcing that a sensation had been caused there by the discovery that the strong box of the Italian steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

The steamer Sirio, which was wrecked in August last on Itomigas Island, with the loss of about one hundred and fifty lives, although found to be hermetically sealed, was empty, raising the presumption of the complicity of the crew in the wreck.

IRONSIDES WINS IN RECORD TIME

Equals World's Mark in Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park Track, Large Crowd Witnessing Race.

BY FRANK THORP.

BELMONT PARK, Oct. 8.—Ironsides won the Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park this afternoon, equalling the world's record of 2:10.3 for the distance.

Ironsides was third choice, but Good Luck and Running Water were only slightly preferred to him. Radtke, who rode Ironsides, took him right to the front, making all the running and winning by a nose.

Good Luck closed strong in the final furlong, but Radtke kept Ironsides going, and just lasted to the wire. Running Water stopped under the weight.

Runnels was a strong choice in the opening event, and for the first six furlongs he showed his speed, but then died away. Macy, Jr., a well backed 8 to 1 choice, closed strong through the stretch and beat Giovanni Balero, a 6 to 1 chance, four lengths for the place. Runnels was third.

Ballot a Hot Favorite.

Ballot was a red-hot favorite in the first part of the Matron Stakes, and he got home a winner by a length and a half from Okente. Jones, who rode the latter, claimed that Radtke bumped him all the way, but from the stand it appeared as if Jones was at fault. The stewards ruled that way, and the race stood. Hickory, an added starter, was third.

Pope Joan was favorite in the second half of the Matron Stakes, but she ran a very bad race, finishing third. She had speed for the first part and then quite. Adoration, a 5 to 1 chance, ridden by Miller, breezed to the front on the last quarter and won cleverly from Fantastico, a 7 to 1 shot.

This Favorite Lost.

Main Chance was favorite with Philadelpia in the fifth race. Altuda, an 8 to 1 chance, went to the front soon after the start, and making all the running, won in a drive by a scant length from Arimo, who beat Merrill a length and a half for the place.

Beaten in the Stretch.

Cadastre raced to the front and made the running to the third, followed by Martin Doyle and Ad News in the stretch. Martin Doyle forged ahead, but in the run home Ad News closed, and taking the lead won by two and a half lengths from Martin Doyle, who beat Jungle Imp two lengths.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER REGISTERS EARLY.

Also Enrolls, Shakes Hands with the Policeman and Seems in Good Health.

John D. Rockefeller, who, since he moved to New York, has rarely voted save in Presidential years, registered early to-day in the polling place at No. 37 Stuyvesant Avenue. He came down from Tarrytown in an automobile and was the sixty-sixth man listed. John D., Jr., who came to town by train, registered No. 72.

Mr. Rockefeller not only registered, but he enrolled, thus establishing his right to vote at the primaries. His young residence is at No. 4 West Fifty-fourth street, and he votes in the Twenty-sixth Election District of the new Twenty-seventh Assembly District. He appeared to be in the very best of health, shook hands with the policemen on duty and was in the booth less than three seconds, when he retired to record his party affiliations.

FRANCHOT WINS AFTER WEEK'S DEADLOCK.

LOUISVILLE, N. Y., Oct. 8.—A special train bearing the election papers of the Forty-seventh District Republican Senatorial Convention left here at 4 o'clock this afternoon and records are expected to be made in order that the nomination of S. P. Franchot may be filed in Albany before midnight.

The convention had been deadlocked a week, but late this afternoon S. P. Franchot was nominated on the 46th ballot. Opposed to him was Irving L'Hommedieu, of Orleans.

LATE RESULTS AT LOUISVILLE.

Fifth—Miss Leeds 11-5. Airship 4-5 place. Frank Bill.

SKULL BROKEN BY BOILER.

George Sleifer, of No. 545 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, was struck by a boiler that fell from a truck being unloaded at No. 235 West One Hundred and Eighth street this afternoon. His skull was fractured and he was taken dying to the J. H. Wright Hospital.

DELANY QUILTS $15,000 JOB AND PLACE GOES TO ELLISON; O'BRIEN SHIFTED BY MAYOR

LASSOED MAN BOUND TO DIE IN THE RIVER

Rescuer Tied Would-Be Suicide, Who Fought with Him.

As the ferryboat Union was leaving her slip at the foot of Catherine street late this afternoon, bound for Long Island City, a big, comfortably-dressed man standing on the forward deck, climbed over the railing and jumped into the river. The pilot saw him jump and instantly signalled the engineer to stop the engines. The would-be suicide drifted past the paddle wheels and toward the shore.

Edward P. Finley, employed on the Clyde Line docks was at the outer end of the Clyde pier, convenient to a long coil of rope. Seizing an end of the rope he jumped into the river, shouting to some men on the pier to make fast the other end.

In a few strokes he reached the man who had jumped from the ferryboat. Finley tried to grab the stranger, but found he was no match for him physically. Swimming away from the drowning man Finley made a cast with the rope, landed it over his arms and tied it.

This rendered the big fellow helpless, although he continued to struggle. He was dragged to a tugboat alongside the pier and from there lifted to the pier itself. Half unconscious and full of water he struggled with maniacal strength, almost overturning half a dozen men who were holding him down.

When at last he was held down, a street policeman, a straight jacket was produced and the man made helpless. He was taken to the hospital.

His condition is serious. He is a fairly stout, well-built, middle-aged man, 6 feet tall, weighs 200 pounds or over and wore a black suit.

METHODISTS HIT RAINES FOR STAND ON TEMPERANCE

Convention Censures the Senator for His Legislative Record.

PENN. YAN. N. Y., Oct. 5.—The Methodist Central New York Conference to-day by a vote of 196 to 4 censured Senator John Raines for his attitude toward temperance legislation. The disapproval was expressed by a resolution adopted by the conference.

A supporter of Raines standing on a chair sought to quell the excitement, shouting:

"This is the house of the Lord." An opponent shouted back: "Yes, and we are on the Lord's business."

By the vote stated the resolution regarding temperance legislation was amended to include the censure of Senator Raines.

NEGROES HUNTED BY CROWDS IN TWO STATES.

ARGENTIA, Ark., Oct. 8.—Although the excitement caused last night by the lynching of Homer Blackwell, the negro, who is alleged to be implicated in the murder of John D. Lindsay Saturday night, had disappeared to-day, deputies are armed for duty tonight.

Officers are securing the country for columns and styles, other negroes charged with complicity in the killing of Lindsay.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 8.—The negro who murdered Supt. K. H. Rutledge at the railroad camp near Lexington, N. C., yesterday, lost track of him last night and his shouts failed to pick up the scent. About five hundred men were engaged in the chase.

The excitement at Lexington was further increased to-day by threats of another negro to kill Foreman Butler, Butler and a posse chased the negro, but he was captured by the Sheriff.

Corporation Counsel Resigns, the Commissioner of Water, Gas and Electricity Is Named and O'Brien Put in Vacant Position.

HUGH BONNER TEMPORARY HEAD OF FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Appointment of O'Brien in Place of Ellison May Mean That the Sullivans Are to Be Punished for Deserting the Mayor.

There was quite a shake-up in Mayor McClellan's administration to-day following the resignation of Corporation Counsel Delany, who years for a Tammany Hall Supreme Court nomination. These changes were made:

John J. Delany, Corporation Counsel, resigned.

W. B. Ellison, Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, appointed to succeed Mr. Delany.

John H. O'Brien, Fire Commissioner, appointed to succeed Mr. Ellison.

Hugh Bonner, Deputy Fire Commissioner, temporarily made Fire Commissioner in place of Mr. O'Brien.

The shift of Mr. O'Brien from the Fire Department to the Water Department created a sensation in political circles. Both places pay the same salary—$7,500 a year—but the Fire Commissioner's office is generally regarded as the more desirable berth.

Sullivans May Suffer.

Mr. Ellison is a close friend of Mr. O'Brien and profits financially by the change, as the Corporation Counsel's office pays $15,000 per annum. The Water Supply, Gas and Electricity office is full of followers of "Big Tim" Sullivan, and Mr. Hall rumor has it that John O'Brien has been sent to that Department because he has the nerve to "fire" the Sullivans in retaliation for the desertion of the Mayor by "Big Tim" and "Little Tim" in Buffalo.

A few minutes after Mr. Delany sent his resignation to the City Hall, his private secretary, William F. Clark, who has been chosen to succeed James J. Martin as Tammany leader of the Twenty-seventh District, appeared at Tammany Hall considerably excited. After announcing that Mr. Delany had resigned Mr. Clark said:

"No self-respecting man could remain in the Corporation Counsel's office and handle the propositions sent over there by the administration. Evidently Mayor McClellan wants a Corporation Counsel who knows more about the Penal Code than the Code of Civil Procedure."

Repudiates Clark's Statement.

When Mr. Delany was told of the utterances of Mr. Clark he expressed surprise and regret. Mr. Clark was acting, he said, on his own responsibility. "His charges are not warranted or endorsed by me," declared Mr. Delany. "They are ebullitions of a brain excited by politics. I have been contemplating this step for some time. There was no politics in it, and there are no differences between the Mayor and me."

Is it not true," he was asked, "that you resigned because you had no hope of getting a Supreme Court nomination while a member of Mayor McClellan's administration?"

"The question of a nomination did not enter into this affair at all," replied Mr. Delany.

Mayor McClellan appeared to be deeply surprised when this last remark was repeated to him. He raised his eyebrows, laughed and said:

"Mr. Delany first spoke of his intention to resign last Thursday. I was well; I prefer not to say how I felt about it."

How Delany Resigned.

Following is the correspondence that passed between Mr. Delany and the Mayor:

Oct. 6, 1906.

Hon. George B. McClellan, Mayor.

Sir—I have the honor to tender you my resignation as Corporation Counsel of the City of New York. Respectfully, JOHN J. DELANY.

Hon. John J. Delany, Corporation Counsel, New York City.

Dear Sir—It is with the greatest reluctance that I accept your resignation. I am certain that you have not taken this step without careful consideration, and I therefore do not regret that I have any right to urge upon you the continuance of a service which perhaps interferes with your private plans.

It is a matter of the greatest regret to me that you feel impelled to leave my administration, but I can

THE MOST LASTING COMFORT IS FOUND IN EVANS' ALB.